Di... in
there...?

Mm...

Whether it's a slash attack with a running start or a magic attack, it seems both would be ineffective!

Ahh, this is amazing! Most of its body is covered in carapace with no openings! An invincible armor!

A giant's standard weak point is the legs! Then, the joints!

That's the first target—

!!

Then how about "The First Rule of Destroying Giant Weapons"?

It's possible that it's using a natural, transcendent "physical boost".

Considering that it's supporting that colossal body,

I hardly stabbed it... The carapace aside, is the entire body tough as well?

It would've been nice if I could have stopped it with the first surprise attack.

Well...

This looks like
it's going to be a protracted battle...

I don't mind that though. It's not a problem
at all.

Because
that will allow me to experience
this silhouette knight to my heart's content.)

Until
then—

...Yeah.

If it's him, we can leave this place
to him.

A black and white manga panel. On the left, a character with short, light-colored hair and a determined expression is shouting. They are wearing a dark jacket with a high collar. In the center, a speech bubble contains the text "Hang in there, Di...!". On the right, a character named Di is hanging from a ledge, looking back over their shoulder with a worried expression. Di is wearing a complex, multi-layered armor with a long, flowing cape. The background is a simple, dark, textured surface.

Hang
in there,
Di...!
